* This may include shares which have been sold by the ANZ Group pursuant to transactions which were not due to have settled as at end of trading on the relevant trading date.

#The schedule attached to yesterday's announcement indicated that ANZ had an interest in 7.732% of the total issued voting shares of Matrixview Limited (MVU) arising in connection with the Opes Prime AMSLAs. The total number of issued voting shares used to calculate this figure did not take into account a new issue of shares by MVU on 7 April 2008, and the correct percentage figure has now been included in this schedule.

The schedule attached to yesterday's announcement indicated that ANZ had an interest in excess of 5% of the total issued voting shares in Mamba Minerals Limited (MAB) arising in connection with the Opes Prime AMSLAs. ANZ's percentage interest with respect to this company was based on information regarding the total number of issued voting shares in the company which was inaccurate. Having regard to the current number of issued voting shares in that company, ANZ does not have an interest in that company in excess of 5% arising in connection with the Opes Prime AMSLAs and accordingly that company has been omitted from this schedule.

The schedule attached to yesterday's announcement identified ANZ as having an interest in excess of 5% of the total issued voting shares in each of Citadel Resource Group Limited (CGG), Future Corporation Australia Limited (FUT), Jameson Resources Limited (JAL), Kings Minerals NL (KMN), Latin Gold Limited (LAT) and Renison Consolidated Mines NL (RSN) arising in connection with the Opes Prime AMSLAs. As a result of the settlement of sale transactions in respect of shares in those companies, ANZ no longer has an interest in the companies arising in connection with the Opes Prime AMSLAs in excess of 5%. Accordingly, those companies have been omitted from this schedule.
